Fig. 2: New design with steel running surface

As part of the continuous development of our products, the running surface of tensioner pulley 531 0829 10 has been changed from plastic (Fig. 1) to steel (Fig. 2).

During the conversion phase, stocks may become mixed with both new and old design parts.

Both tensioner pulleys meet the technical specifications and can be used on the listed vehicles without restriction.

Please observe the vehicle manufacturer specifications!
